

Fighting Invasive Plants?

WHY ARE INVASIVE PLANTS AN ISSUE AND HOW CAN LANDOWNERS MANAGE THEM?

Learn the answers to these questions and more at

The Virginia Invasive Plant Workshop, Monday May 21st

9-5pm Warrenton, Virginia The Airlie Conference Center

Speakers include:

Chris Asaro - VA Dept. of Forestry

VA Dept. of Conservation

Sally Anderson - VA Native Plant Society

David Carr - Blandy Experimental Farm

Hugh Courtney - Josephine Porter Institute

John Pennington - Monomoy Farm

Autumn Olive Farm

& More!

Practical sessions on prevention, control, removal, and utilization of Autumn Olive, Garlic Mustard, Fescue, Tree of Heaven, & More

Limited Space Available — Register Soon!

$75 per person, includes full day sessions and lunch. Please register by May 14, 2012 at www.pecva.org/events

Questions?

For registration questions, call Susan Leopold at (540)671.5176 or email Susan@unitedplantsavers.org

For scholarships, call Lori Udall at (703)754.8713 or email Sacharuna@pfchq.com

For general questions, call James Barnes at (540)347.2334 or email jbarnes@pecva.org

Sponsored by:

Sacharuna Foundation, The Piedmont Environmental Council,

United Plant Savers, & Virginia Working Landscapes

Photo credits: H. Leeson

